Yannoulatos, Greek Consul, Leaving Tomorrow For Europe

Wellknown Shanghai Resident To Be Gone Six Months

Mr. Emm. P. Yannoulatos, Managing Partner of Yannoulatos Bros. (China) and Acting Consul-General for Greece, is leaving tomorrow at 11 o'clock in the morning on the s.s. Tsingtao Maru for Europe and America.

Mr. Yannoulatos, who is traveling by way of Dairen and Siberia to Europe, expects to be present at the drilling operations of his firm's oil concession in Macedonia, where oil has recently been discovered. He will first report to his government in Athens.

Mr. Yannoulatos will be accompanied by Mrs. Yannoulatos and expects to be away for about six months, returning to Shanghai by way of America.

During his absence, his younger brother, Mr. Paul Yannoulatos, will be in charge of the Consulate-General for Greece and of his brother's business connections.

Mr. Yannoulatos first came to China 30 years ago and established himself in Chefoo as a silk exporter. In 1925 he was honored by the Peking Government with a special letter of commendation for services rendered to China.

He has established two firms, the China Merchants Pongee Association, which deals exclusively in the export of silk and Chinese produce to foreign countries, and Yannoulatos Bros., which is mainly interested in shipping. He is also a director of the recently incorporated Anglo-Hellenic Steamship Company, Ltd., of Shanghai.

Mr. Yannoulatos has always been an ardent friend of China and has done much, especially since his appointment as Acting Consul-General for Greece, to cement the excellent relations between the two countries.

He has been honored by several farewell parties, official and private, during the past several days.

THE first issue of the "Grecian Bulletin for the Far East" has been published as a half-yearly journal to promote economic relations between Greece and the Far East. Appropriately it starts with an article by Mr. Emm. P. Yannoulatos; the Acting Consul-General for Greece on the "Early and present commercial relations and trade possibilities for China and Greece." The bulletin is attractively illustrated and does credit to its editor and manager Mr. N. G. Tretchikoff.

GREEK CONSULATE IN SHANGHAI

Country Represented Here for the First Time

With the appointment of Mr. Emmanuel P. Yannoulatos, prominent Greek merchant of Shanghai as Honorary Consul for Greece and the opening up of the Offices of the Greek Consulate General at 120 Jinkee Road, Greece will be for the first time represented in this city.

One of the most prominent silk merchants and exporters in North China and the active executive head of three important firms Mr. Yannoulatos has been in the Orient for almost thirty years having come to China in 1906 to represent his father's firm and other Greek manufacturers and producers. Born on August 19, 1887 he received his education at the Commercial College of Greece and served his apprenticeship at one of the agencies of the Credit Lyonnais in Greece.

In 1910 in Chefoo he organized the China Merchants Pongee Association, of which he is still the general manager with head offices in Shanghai and a branch at Chefoo, and later established with his brothers the firm of Yannoulatos Brothers (China) of Chefoo and Shanghai, exporters, shipping and insurance agents. In 1932 in partnership with Mr. Paul Le Bris, former President of the French Municipal Council, he formed the P. Le Bris Export-Import S.R.L. of Shanghai and Paris of which he is the managing director in China. Mr. Yannoulatos is the Far Eastern representative of the principal shipping interests of his country. The firm of Messrs. Yannoulatos Brothers were also recently granted a concession by the Greek Government for the exploitation of the oil deposits in Macedonia, where the final survey is now being made by prominent German scientists.

Mr. Emmanuel P. Yannoulatos

Mr. Yannoulatos also has the distinction of receiving in 1915 the commendation of the Chinese Government for the valuable services rendered by his firm to this country.

He has served as president of the Greek community (1927-1932) also of the Hellenic Benevolent Society of China and has always taken a keen interest in the welfare of the Greek Community. During the past 25 years he has frequently written enlightening articles concerning Greece for the Foreign Press of this country.

In a statement yesterday Mr. Yannoulatos said: "My appointment is an honorary one and I will continue to serve until such time as my Government decides to send to Shanghai a Consul-General from Home. In meantime I shall strive to serve the interests of our communities under my jurisdiction and to cultivate closer commercial intercourse between my country and China. Two of the oldest countries of the world, China and Greece, commercially, know very little of each other; I am, therefore, happy of the opportunities this appointment will afford me to work and serve the interests of both."

Mr. and Mrs. Yannoulatos left yesterday morning for a short vacation in Tsingtao and Chefoo.
